Also, could you pass on thanks to your chef, again with many compliments about the quality of the food. Once again thank you to one and all. ”

“ I recently got married & I have to say it was the best experience ever. The staff involved were amazing, I couldn't have wished for a better day, they couldn't have been more accommodating, so kind and friendly, they really put me at ease. We had a cake made by the pastry chef, it was stunning, even better than the picture I asked him to copy. All the guests commented on how fantastic it was and how nice the food was. I would like to say a massive thank you to everyone involved on our very, very special day. ”
